ACOUSTIC EIDOLON TO PRESENT RESIDENCY IN SCHOOLS
AND COMMUNITY OCTOBER 20 AND 21

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Salina, KS 10-22) Acoustic Eidolon, otherwise known as Joe Scott and Hannah Alkire, is in residency on October 20 and 21 in Salina area schools through the Arts Infusion Program of Salina Arts & Humanities. The residency includes a community performance, which is free and open to the public, at Marymount Properties Chapel, 2035 E. Iron Ave. on Thursday, October 20, starting at 7:00 p.m. Registration is required and available online at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/acoustic-eidolon-tickets-429790784807> or by calling 785-309-5770. Parking will be available at Marymount Properties and the lower parking lot of the Kansas Highway Patrol Training Academy.

The group's original sound is created by mixing their diverse musical backgrounds and unusual instrumentation, including the one-of-a-kind double-neck guitjo, an instrument of Joe's design. Classically trained cellist Hannah Alkire is recognized internationally for her stunning tone and impeccable, emotional playing, and for taking the cello to "places it's never been before." This performance features curriculum connections for the classroom such as music, social/emotional, and bilingual education.

Joe Scott on double-neck guitjo and Hannah Alkire on cello are from Berthoud, Colorado, and have graced stages throughout the U.S., Europe, Australia and Canada, including a long history with the Salina community through the Arts Infusion Program and with the Smoky Hill River Festival.

For needed accommodations, please call Amanda Morris at Salina Arts & Humanities at 785-309-5770 between 8:00 a.m. - Noon and 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. Every effort will be made to accommodate known disabilities. For material or speech access, please call at least five working days prior to the event.

Salina Arts & Humanities, a department of the City of Salina, has served a unique role in arts advocacy and support since 1966. The Smoky Hill River Festival, Horizons Grants Program, Smoky Hill Museum, Arts Infusion Program in schools, Community Art & Design, Cultural Connections, and Friday Night Live performance series are among the programs of Salina Arts & Humanities, located at 211 W. Iron Avenue in Salina.
